Please read the following carefully as it constitutes conditions for receiving services from the Helping Hands Ministry.

Helping Hands is strictly a volunteer ministry for those who desire to use their talents to help others. This ministry provides THE LABOR ONLY. Materials and other miscellaneous costs are to be provided by you (to the best of your ability). Some requests may be denied due to lengthy involvement, requirements beyond our resources, repeated requests or other more urgent needs of which to be determined at the discretion of Helping Hands Ministry.

By signing this application for work/service, you are agreeing not to hold the volunteers or Alderwood Community Church responsible for any injury, damage, or work which does not meet your expectations. As a precondition to processing this request, you will be required to sign and date this release.
